

Celebration of Mahila Kisan Diwas under DAPSC Programme

ICAR-CIRG, Makhdoom celebrated Mahila Kisan Diwas under Development Action Plan for Scheduled Caste (DAPSC) on 15.10.2020 at Sheep Unit of the Institute. During this programme, an educational tour of 50 women farmer registered under different Self Help Groups (SHGs) of Scheduled Caste community of Bhimnagar village of Farah block was arranged. Women participants were given the knowledge of goat production, role of women in agriculture and animal rearing. All the participants were also given a Milton water Bottle and a packet containing heavy refreshment. During the programme every participants and guests followed all precautionary measures for COVID 19.

Dr. B. Rai, Director (Acting), Dr. Gopal Dass, Nodal Officer, DAPSC, Dr. Braj Mohan, Incharge, EE&SE Section, Dr. Ashok Kumar, PS & I/C, PME, Dr. A. K. Dixit, Principal Scientist, Dr. Nitika Sharma, Scientist, Dr. Moh. Arif, Scientist and Dr. Vinay Chaturvedi, Senior Veterinary Officer, ICAR-CIRG, Makhdoom attended the programme. Dr. B. Rai explained the participants about role of women in agriculture and animals rearing and assured participants all possible help to them under DAPSC programme. Dr. Gopal Dass, programme organizer detailed about the activities of the DAPSC programme and importance of Mahila Kisan Diwas in the country. Dr. Braj Mohan also spoke about Mahila Kisan Diwas and he explained how the women can be strengthen further in the country. Dr. Ashok Kumar gave a speech about the role of women in the country and abroad. He told that at present the women are carrying out almost all the difficult jobs in the country and abroad. Dr Nitika Sharma conducted the programme and she also explained the importance the girls education in our country. In the end of the programme, the vote to all proposed by Dr. Moh. Arif.

