The estimated time of arrival of goods from ex-works/port of entry to the destination will be calculated by the purchaser for each bid after allowing for reasonable transportation time based on the published tariff of Railways, appropriate Road Transport Agencies etc. Bids offering deliveries (as worked out on above lines), which are later than the specified delivery but within the allowable range (as specified in the Schedule of Requirements) will be adjusted during the evaluation by adding a factor equal to the percentage specified in the Schedule of Requirements to the EXW/CIF/CIP price per week of variation from the specified delivery schedule.

Cost of components and spare parts:

- I. the list of items and quantities of major assemblies, components and selected spare parts, likely to be required during the initial period of operation as specified in the Schedule of Requirements, is annexed to the Technical Specification. The total cost of these items, at the unit prices quoted in each bid, will be added to the bid price.
 - Or
 - II. The purchaser will draw up a list of high usage and high value items of components and spare parts, along with the estimated quantities of usage in the initial period of operation as indicated in the Schedule of Requirements. The total cost of these items and quantities will be computed from the corresponding unit prices quoted by the bidder and added to the bid price.
 - Or
 - III. the purchaser will estimate the cost of spare parts usage in the initial period of operation specified in the Schedule of Requirements, based on the information furnished by each bidder, as well as on the past experience of the purchaser or other purchasers in similar situations. Such costs shall be added in the bid price for evaluation.
- d. Availability of spare parts and after sales service facilities in India:

The cost to the purchaser of establishing the required service facilities and parts inventories, as cullied in the Schedule of Requirements or elsewhere in the bidding documents, if quoted separately, shall be added to the bid price.

The projected operating and maintenance cost during the life of the equipment:

These costs, which form a major portion of the life cycle cost of the equipment, will be evaluated in accordance with the criteria specified in the Schedule of Requirements and /or in technical specifications.

Specific additional criteria:

Other specific additional criteria to be considered in the bid evaluation and the corresponding evaluation method shall be incorporated in the Schedule of Requirements and /or in the technical specifications.

27. Bidder's capability to perform the contract

27.1 The purchaser will determine to its satisfaction whether the bidder, which is Selected as having submitted the lowest evaluated responsive bid, is qualified and prima facie capable to perform the contract satisfactorily.

27.2 The determination will take into account the bidder's financial, technical, and production capabilities for fulfilling all the requirements of the purchaser as specified in the bidding documents. This exercise will be based upon the examination of the documentary evidence of the bidder's qualifications submitted by the bidder. Pursuant to ITB clauses 2 and 13, as well as such other allied information as the purchaser deems necessary and appropriate.

27.3 An affirmative determination will be a prerequisite for award of the contract to the bidder. A negative determination will result in rejection of the bidder's bid, in which event the purchaser will proceed. To the next lowest evaluated bid to make a similar determination of the bidder's capabilities to perform satisfactorily.

28. Purchaser's right to vary quantities at the time of award

28.1 The purchaser reserves the right at the time of awarding the contract to increase or Decrease by up to 25%, the quantity of goods and services specified in the schedule or requirements without any change in the unit price or other terms and conditions.

- iii) If the letter of credit is required to be extended/reinstated for reasons not attributable to the purchaser, the charges thereof shall be to the supplier's account.

18. Prices

18.1 Prices charged by the supplier for the goods supplied and the services performed under the contract shall not vary from the prices quoted by the supplier in its bid with the exception of any price adjustment authorized in the Schedule of Requirements.

19. Modification of contract

19.1 The purchaser may at any time, by a written order given to the supplier pursuant to GCC clause 31, make changes and modifications within the general scope of contract in any one or more of the following:

- a) Drawings, designs or specifications, where goods to be supplied under the contract are to be specifically manufactured for the purchaser,
- b) the mode of packing,

- c) the mode of despatch
- d) the place of delivery,
- e) the services to be provided by the supplier and/or
- f) any other area(s) of the contract, depending on the merits of the case.

19.2 If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or in the time required for the supplier's performance of any provision under the contract, and equitable adjustment shall be made in the contract price or contract delivery schedule or both, and the contract shall be amended accordingly. Any claim by the supplier for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within 21 (twenty-one) days from the date of the supplier's receipt of the purchaser's amendment/modification of the contract.

19.3 Subject to GCC sub-clauses 19.1 and 19.2, no variation in or modification of the terms of the contract shall be made except by written amendment signed by both the parties.

20. Assignment

20.1 The supplier shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the purchaser's prior written consent.

21. Sub Contracts

21.1 The supplier shall notify the purchaser in writing of all sub contracts awarded under the contract, if not already specified in its bid. Such notifications, in its original bid or later, shall not relieve the supplier from any liability or obligation, whatsoever, under the contract.

21.2 Subcontract shall be only for bought-out items and sub-assemblies.

21.3 Subcontracts must comply with the provisions of GCC clause 3.

22. Delay in the supplier's performance

22.1 Delivery of the goods and performance of the services shall be made by the supplier in accordance with the time schedule specified by the purchaser in the "Schedule of Requirements".

22.2 Except as provided under GCC clause 25, any unexcused delay by the supplier in maintaining its contractual delivery obligations shall render the supplier liable to any or all of the following sanctions:

imposition of liquidated damages, forfeiture of its performance security and/or termination of the contract for default

22.3 If at any time during the performance of the contract, the supplier or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions hindering timely delivery of the goods and performance of the services, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of the fact of the delay, its likely duration and its causes(s). After the receipt of the supplier's notice, the purchaser, as soon as practicable, shall evaluate the situation and may at its discretion extend the supplier's time for performance, in which case the extension of the delivery period shall be ratified by issuing an amendment to the contract.

22.4 The supplier shall not despatch the goods after expiry of the delivery period. The supplier is required to apply to the purchaser for extension of delivery period and obtain the same before despatch. In case the supplier despatches the goods without obtaining an extension, it would be doing so at its own risk and no claim for payment for such supply and/or any other expense related to such supply shall lie against the purchaser.

23. Liquidated damages

23.1 Subject to GCC clause 25, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all the goods or perform the services within the time period(s) specified in the contract, the purchaser shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the contract, deduct from the contract price, as liquidated damages, a sum equivalent to 0.5% (half percent) of the delivered price of the delayed goods or unperformed services for each week of delay or part thereof until actual delivery or performance, up to a maximum deduction of 10% (ten percent) of the delayed goods' or services' contract price. Once the maximum is reached, the purchaser may consider termination of the contract, if the same have not been terminated already.

Further, during the above mentioned delayed period of supply and/ or performance, the supplier, notwithstanding any stipulation in the contract for increase in price for any ground, shall not be entitled to any increase in price and cost, whatsoever, which take place during the period of delay. But, nevertheless, the purchaser shall be entitled to the benefit any decrease in price and cost on any ground during that period of delay.

24. Termination for default.

24.1 The purchaser, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, may, by written notice of default sent to the supplier, terminate the contract in whole or in part, if the supplier fails to deliver any or all of the goods or fails to perform any other contractual obligation(s) within the time period specified in the contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the purchaser pursuant to GCC clause 22.

24.2 In the event the purchaser terminates the contract in whole or in part, pursuant to GCC sub-clause 24.1, the purchaser may procure, upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as it deems appropriate, goods and/or services similar to those undelivered and the supplier shall be liable to the purchaser for any excess cost for such similar goods and / or services. However, the supplier shall continue to perform the contract to the extent not terminated.

25. Force Majeure

25.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC clause 22,23 and 24, the supplier shall not be liable for, forfeiture of its performance security, liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure

25.2 For purpose of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity, was or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

25.3 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

26. Termination for insolvency

26.1 If the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, the purchaser may terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, without any compensation to the supplier, provided, that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued and/ or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

27. Termination for convenience

27.1 The purchaser, by written notice to the supplier, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that the termination is for the purchaser's convenience, the extent to which performance of the supplier under the contract is terminated, and the date with effect from which such termination becomes effective.

27.2 The goods that the complete and ready for shipment within 30 (thirty) days after the supplier's receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the purchaser at the contract terms and prices. For the remaining goods, the purchaser may elect:

- a) to have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and/or
- b) to cancel the remainder and pay to the supplier an agreed amount for partially completed goods and services and for materials and parts already procured by the supplier for fulfilling the contractual obligations.

28. Resolution of disputes

28.1 If any disputes or difference of any kind shall arise between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve the same amicably by mutual consultations.

28.2 If after thirty(30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given.

28.3 Any dispute or difference, in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with GCC sub-clause 28.2, shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of goods under the contract.

28.4 The dispute resolution mechanism to be applied pursuant to GCC sub clause 28.3 shall be as follows:-

- a) In the case of a dispute or difference arising between the purchaser and the supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with the contract, such disputes or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act,1996. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, one each to be appointed by the purchaser and the supplier. The third arbitrator shall be chosen by the two arbitrators so appointed by the parties and shall act as presiding arbitrator. In case of failure of the two arbitrators appointed by the parties to reach upon a consensus within a period of thirty days from the appointment of the arbitrator appointed subsequently, the presiding arbitrator shall be appointed by the Indian Council of Arbitration or President of the Institution of Engineers (India).

b) The decision of majority of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon both the parties.

c) The cost and expense of the arbitration proceedings will be paid as determined by the arbitral tribunal. However, the expenses incurred by each party in connection with the preparation, presentation etc. of its proceedings as also fees and expenses paid to the arbitrator appointed by such party or on its behalf shall be borne by each party itself.

28.5 However, where the value of the contract is Rs. 15 lakhs (Rs. one and a half million) and below, the disputes or differences arising in it shall be referred to a sole arbitrator. The sole arbitrator shall be appointed by mutual agreement between the parties. If the parties fail to agree on the arbitrator within 30 (thirty) days from the receipt of a request by one party from the other party to so agree, the appointment shall be made upon request of a party, by the Indian Council of Arbitration or the President of the Institution of Engineers (India)

28.6 The venue of arbitration shall be the place from where contract is issued.

29. Governing language

29.1 The contract shall be written in English language. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract, which the parties exchange, shall also be written in English.

30. Application law

30.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of India.

31. Notice

31.1 Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to the contract shall be sent in writing or by cable, telex or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the addresses specified in the Schedule of Requirement.

31.2 A notice shall be effective when delivered or on the notice's effective date, whichever is later.

32. Taxes and duties

32.1 A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties, license fees and other such levies imposed outside India.

32.2 A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties license fees, etc. incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

32.3 Further instruction if, any, shall be as provided in the Schedule of Requirements.
