

Farm Innovators' Day
CIRG, Makhdoom, Farah, Mathura-281122

Invitation

I feel pleasure to inform you that CIRG is organizing Farm Innovators' Day on April 27, 2013 with the objective to share experiences and innovations of farmers, especially in the area of goat husbandry. Progressive farmers are coming from all over the country to share your experience and this will be beneficial for other farmers and a step towards to achieve the goal of sustainable goat production in our country.

All are cordially invited to attend the inaugural function at 10.10 AM at Central Hall of the institute.

I solicit your cooperation in making the Farm Innovators' Day purposeful and successful
